The background is a vibrant collage of Chinese New Year motifs. It features a dense pattern of the Chinese character '福' (Fú) in various sizes and colors, including red, gold, and white. Interspersed among the characters are traditional red lanterns, some hanging from a branch with red blossoms in the upper left. A stylized city skyline with various skyscrapers is visible at the bottom, set against a backdrop of swirling red and orange clouds. The overall color palette is dominated by red, gold, and white, creating a celebratory and auspicious atmosphere.
